

FRAUD ALERT

OCP-FA-02-2011

Date: October 3, 2011
Subject: Fraudulent NCUA Corporate Checks – Telho Credit Union

The National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) recently became aware of fraudulent activities using NCUA corporate checks drawn off of Telho Credit Union. These fraudulent checks are mailed via FedEx to consumers with no attached instructions. If deposited, these checks will be returned as a fraudulent item.

Below is a sample of a fraudulent check purporting to be from the NCUA:

Consumers who suspect that they have received one of these checks are advised not to deposit the item. For additional information, please contact the NCUA Consumer Assistance Center at 1-800-755-1030.
